An upcoming world-wide broadcast in celebration of what would have been Frank Sinatra's 100th birthday will include Miami Shores resident Larry Branchetti.

Branchetti believes that Sinatra's voice is for all generations. Sinatra's showmanship and artistry have remained unmatched since he began performing professionally in the 1930's to his last recording 21 years ago. Branchetti was bestowed the honor and opportunity to perform alongside Frank Sinatra on the show performing his great classics. Branchetti stated "this was truly a dream come true....one that I will always remember and cherish.... what an opportunity and a Christmas gift. My best regards go out to the producer of the special broadcast".

Branchetti is an Italian-American entertainer born of Italian decent in the quaint town of Aliquippa, just outside of Pittsburgh. His family came from the Abruzzo region of Italy, specifically Pescara, and Barrea. Branchetti sings the classic songs of Gershwin, Cole Porter, Henry Mancini, and Johnny Mercer in the style of Frank Sinatra. He has for many years given his personal time to support fund raising efforts and has proven himself to be a truly humane individual who has what it takes to set an example for Italian-Americans who want to carry on their proud tradition.
