

Italian Week á la Prima at City Streets

Ray McKinley, Joe Richman and Al Hirt. Butera joined Louis Prima and Keely Smith in the early 1950s in Vegas and the rest is musical history. Together they did TV shows, recordings, and movies, and they broke attendance records in every showroom or lounge in the country.

Butera has also appeared with Danny Thomas, Jerry Vale, Sergio Franchi, Jimmy Roselli and Sammy Davis, Jr., with whom he recorded an album.

Branchetti will wow you as he sings the classics of Mr. Sinatra. Endorsed by the Italian Sons and Daughters of America and Ciao (the central umbrella over other Italian organizations), Mr. Branchetti was recognized by the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of Italy in their national magazine.

Lawrence Branchetti

The Herald's Yvonne Perez recently wrote, "Branchetti has the same snap, crack and pizzazz as our beloved Ol' Mr. Blue Eyes, the late Mr. Frank Sinatra." Branchetti states, "I am not an impersonator" though his own natural voice bears quite a similarity to Mr. Sinatra's.

He is currently performing with the Sonny Mange Orchestra, a 17-piece award winning band that performed with Mr. Sinatra and many other greats.
